

Leading Courageously in the Human Services Sector

2019 SUMMER SERIES

The Summer Series continues to grow leaders to be versed in the Art of Hosting and Harvesting Conversations that Matter. No matter if you are a seasoned practitioner or are simply curious, we welcome you to join us. All workshops will be held at the Robert R. Jones Urban Research and Outreach-Engagement Center (UROC) at 2001 Plymouth Ave N in Minneapolis

Human-centered Design

September 16 9:00AM-2:30PM $65

Focus on human beings and context; emphasize iterative cycles of implementing, learning, and improving; and grow public value. Learn these design principles and creative problem-solving approaches you can adapt to enrich your work.

Using Data to Tell Stories with Impact

July 9, 9:00AM-12:00PM $50

Like constellations among the stars, stories are embedded within data. Learn how to shape stories from data to have impact in regulative, collaborative, integrative, and generative human service business capabilities.

Unleashing Stories to Shift Systems

July 18, 9:00AM-12:00PM $50

Learn the art of invitation to engage diverse perspectives, practice listening deeply to bear witness to the brilliance in others, and collectively harvest stories that shift systems.

The Art of Harvesting

August 14, 9:00AM-4:00PM $80

Explore individual and collective, tangible and intangible ways of making meaning and creating clarity. Learn how to design for the harvest and create strategic artifacts that move work forward.

Hosting in Hierarchy

August 28, 9:00AM-12:00PM $50

Everyday practices for working and leading in hierarchy. Work more effectively with power and engage others in your organization in more meaningful ways. Explore ways to dance on the path between chaos and order and stroll on the path between order and control.

For more information and registration, go to <http://z.umn.edu/aoh2019>

Sign up for three or more workshops and save 10%!

Contact Kamaria Woyee, kpwoyee@umn.edu, for promo code.